THE FRENCH HOLIDAY.

The celebration of the Fall of the Bastile, July 14, 1789 will be duly celebrated to-day by the French population of New York.

These worthy Frenchmen are more patriolic in commemorating the glorious uprising of the people of Paris which led to the destruction of the gloomy Bastile than we Americans are in bonoring the present from society sources, efforts of the colonists to secure independence. The French "Fourth" is apparently of more importance to them than our "Fourth" is to us. It is to sive, is for light, flexible and cool-looking them the birthday of the French Federa

AT LAST THE AQUEDUCT.

To-morrow the new Aqueduct will, for the first time, be applied to the use for which it was erected. The Chief Engineer promised that water should be flowing through it by the 15th of this month and if Croton Lake pours its crystal flood to-morrow the promise will be V-shaped sections of white kid set in them.

104, 106 and 108 West 14th St. Secretary: A. Augenstein, Sergeant-at-Arms: Des-grates to the Joint Frecutive Board, W. Eckert, C. Nelmeider and P. Kuilberg: Delegates to the C. L. F., W. Eckert, G. Schlenstein and P. Godge, To the chalunkers $7, 80 was given. It was definitely settled restorday by the United German Trades of Brooklyn, not to take part in the Brooklyn, not to take part in the Brooklyn parade on Labor Day. In the recommunication to the Brooklyn U. L. U. announcing their decision to the Brooklyn U. L. U. announcing their decision the United Trades say that they were forced to parade alone on a count of the action of D. A. 220, whom they charge with trying to divide organized labor against itself.

there a no end to be seen yet. The men are determined by later arrivals at Wady-Halfa confirm the previous announcements of a revoit of the tribes in the interior of the Soudan against the Mahdi.

At last accounts it was raidely spreading, some of the best fighting tribes having the spin of the spin of the spin of the best fighting tribes having the seen of the seen of the best fighting tribes having the seen of the seen o

Don't sit waiting for places to come to you. There are plenty of good places waiting for you-for young and old, men, women, boys and girls. Through a "World "Want" you can find them with no trouble, and at an expense not worth considering. Ten cents will pay for a 2 line "Situation Wanted" Want on Monday or Saturday, "The World's" Half Rate Situation Days. During Juns last THE WORLD published 31,336 " Situations 22, 760 in June, 1880.
